

Certification of Selective Service Registration

Defense Authorization Act of 1986:

On November 8th, 1985, the President signed into law the Defense Authorization Act of 1986. Section 1622 of the Act adds a new section to the United States Code. This section prohibits any male born after December 31, 1959, from being appointed to a position in an executive agency if he is required to register with the Selective Service System but has knowingly and willfully not complied.

Important Notice:

If you are a male born after December 31, 1959 and you want to be employed by the Federal Government, you must (with certain exceptions) be registered with the Selective Service System. If you are a male between 18 and 26 years of age, and you are required to register, but have not done so, you must register at once at your local post office in order to obtain a Federal appointment. The certification form must be completed before your appointment can be finalized.

Criminal:

A false statement by you may be grounds for not hiring you or firing you. Also you may be punished by fine or imprisonment (US Code, Title 18, Section 1001).
